

CONTENTS

Chapter 1: Why Train in the Market Place?..... 1

Training need... from utility cost to potential profit center... post-sales responsibility... consumerism... labor skills shift... information vs. instruction... education vs. training... illiteracy, illiterates, and sometime-illiterates...social/corporate/professional responsibility... education vs. training... training as a big business outsourcing needs requires knowhow... comparing budgets... training as co-equal management function... advantages

Chapter 2: Problems as Opportunities..... 22

Types of training systems... library programs... training scams... mastering skills... leader companies... in-house, college-pairs, and commercial schools... by the numbers... examples... language-handicapped number is triple the military... personalizing library programs

Chapter 3: The Typewriter/Computer Example..... 31

Extended example re: computer... manufacturing, marketing, and after-marketing service... pre-purchase service or marketing... various interpretations of available opportunity.

Chapter 4: Should You Buy Generics? 38

Purpose and value of generics... value to you?... format vs content... valid research contradicts press... a niche for your program.

Chapter 5: Appealing to the Human Side of People..... 44

Performance of people... greater good... early Behaviorism later motivation company goofs... extrapolating for... seeking wide applications of programs ethical choices... historical appraisals of the training field's literature.

Chapter 6: The Era of Responsibility 57

Corporate/professional/social responsibility revisited... exploring the term capital... elitism and historic privatism... valid, value based contributions... human resources accounting... job enrichment and job expansion... re-evaluating corporate motives.

Chapter 7: Critical Distinctions in Training..... 70

Applying "Education vs training"... cognitive styles... pedagogy vs andragogy... motivation vs incentive.

Chapter 8: Fundamentals of Training Systems 81

ISD basic steps... refinements toward perfection... third party evaluation audits... Job/Task Inventories... educational universe, proficiency level, learning domains... terminology.

Chapter 9: Exploring Your Options 96

Categories of options... literacy example... non-corporate needs... giving back... alternate strategies... practical application... public service... understanding change... two forms: Instructional Programming Inventory Memo; Opportunity Correlator.

Chapter 10: Organizing Early Ideas	117
Getting started... creativity and its cousins... problem solving outline.
Chapter 11: Two Main Modes of Focus.....	122
Problem solving mode... service mode... looking for ideas... two forms "Preliminary Project Analysis" (for Marketing Chain/Distribution Network, in product/service mode); and Ditto (for Community/Social Service/Civic Affairs, in needs mode).
Chapter 12: If You Borrow	133
How and how not to borrow programs... one form: "Instructional Programs Inventory"
Chapter 13: Thinking "Programs".....	136
Proceeding programming... roughing out... syllabus... Complete Statements of Objectives... proficiency levels... estimating time frames... lesson and session plans described... cost effectiveness.
Chapter 14: Selecting Project Staff:.....	146
Jobs: ISD staff—or consultant?... committee/task force.
Chapter 15: Implementing Your Master Plan	158
Mechanical and judgemental caveats... fulfillment... furthering vs violating the idea... training vs meetings... "selling" programs... think "group"... think "distribution chain."

Chapter 16: Creating the Master Syllabus.....	166
Appreciating the Master Syllabus... (Generic) corporate Sales Training syllabus... ringbinder for control... program anatomy... evalutaions... Trainee Course Control form.
Chapter 17: Following Through.....	180
Following through... proofs of success... feedback and variations... facing negatives... facing positives... staying flexible... sample description of measured programs... various applications to needs... deserving your success... this single-valued world... taking bows.
AFTER WORD	199
Glossary (Hierarchical)	201
Glossary (Alphabetical).....	207
BIBLIOGRAPHY	213
Index.....	225
About the Author:.....	231